"I'm thrilled to partner with Rawlings Sporting Goods as the Official Basketball of the NCBBA. While Rawlings may not be a household name in the basketball arena, the quality of their basketball is as good as it gets. Over the years, we have developed a tremendous relationship with the Rawlings brand and I know their commitment to our leagues is unmatched. They value the NCBBA, its member teams and are proud to collaborate with us and offer their state-of-the-art basketball. I know our teams will become huge fans of this basketball."
